Review of Marking Candidate Consent

Below explains what may happen following a clerical re-check, review of marking and any further appeal. If York College submits the above request (clerical re-check, review of marking, appeal only), once reviews the possible outcomes are below:

1. Original mark is lowered, your final grade may be lowered because of this.
2. Original mark is confirmed as correct, there is no change to your final grade.
3. Original mark is raised, this could raise your final grade.

By signing this section, I confirm I have read and understand all the above information and that the information given on the form is correct.
